MS. BLACK HANOVER 2025

I'm honored to represent Hanover, Maryland as a contestant in the Ms. Black Maryland USA 2025 Pageant. This isn't just a crown, this is a calling. Through my platform, "Be Divine - Be Empowered" my mission is rooted in healing, expression, and transformation by serving youth and women in underserved communities through the power of dance arts and personal development workshops. I aim to provide culturally rich, accessible, and emotionally restorative experiences and tools that increases confidence, inspires creativity, and cultivates leadership from the inside out.

"Through dance arts, we heal. Through empowerment, we rise" - Ayahnnna Hines
